Letter Guaranteeing Full-time Employment

Sustained full-time employment is work that averages minimally 30 hours per week or 130 hours per month or multiple jobs that are (in aggregate) reasonably commensurate with full-time work.

Full-time employment should be scheduled to commence no later than 30 calendar days after the date of high school graduation. However, full-time employment may commence up to 90 calendar days after graduation if the cause for delay in employment is determined to be reasonable by the LEA.
